

Spanish A Level Bridging Work

Compulsory tasks	Advisory task (Higher students should aim to complete all of this too.)
Create your own grammar explanations with examples on the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Present & Present continuous • Near & Simple future • Preterit & Imperfect • Perfect & Pluperfect • Conditional mood • Present subjunctive • Si clauses (3 types) https://studyspanish.com/grammar may help.	Create your own grammar explanations with examples on the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Imperfect subjunctive • Passive voice • Relative pronouns • Possessives • Direct & Indirect object pronouns • Conditional perfect
Watch the film “El Laberinto del Fauno” and produce a summary.	Research the film’s director – Guillermo Del Toro and his other works.
Read the book “Como agua para chocolate” and produce chapter summaries.	Research the themes in the novel and the use of magical realism.
Find a recent Spanish article which deals with each theme: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Family and society changes • Festivals • The working world in Spain • Gastronomy • The Media & communication • Music and its impact on society https://www.practicaespanol.com/ may be helpful.	Gather a bank of statistics related to each of the themes and research how these statistics compare to UK statistics.
Create a vocabulary list for each of the themes above. Get the app and join Memrise and work through this course. http://www.memrise.com/course/2132716	Read a Spanish book – it may be challenging but little by little. Keep a vocabulary book as you go along. Some online short stories are available here - http://spanishlanguageblog.com/resources/famous-spanish-short-stories-online/

