

SIXTH FORM DRESS CODE

“School is a place of work for people of a wide range of ages. Sensitivity needs to be shown in everyone’s choice of clothing. Nothing should be worn that can give a reasonable person any cause for embarrassment or offence. This sometimes involves saying ‘No’ to certain items of clothing.

The Dress Code set out below recognises that you are young adults in a School community with a cosmopolitan ethos”.

- No football shirts or football shorts
 - Shirts and tops must meet or overlap trousers and skirts so that the midriff is covered at all times, when standing or sitting
 - No beach-wear (e.g. board shorts, flip-flops, low cut/sleeveless t shirts)
 - No logos or slogans on shirts (except the manufacturer’s name – but no fcuk logos are allowed)
 - Skirts should be a respectable length
 - No ripped or torn clothing of any sort
 - No hats or caps
 - In hot weather, plain or tailored shorts are acceptable
 - There are no restrictions on hair or jewellery

The above dress code reflects the simple fact that School is a place of work and what you wear contributes to the creation of a working environment.

The key phrase should be “Smart but Casual”.
If in doubt, ASK

Students who violate the code may be asked to continue their education elsewhere.
